Down the Shore

Consider New Jersey’s 130 miles of coastline a bountiful buffet of splashy recreation.

The Atlantic Ocean provides a dramatic backdrop to eclectic shorefront communities, from quaintly charming to pulsing with excitement. Stroll or bike iconic boardwalks and sample the countless diversions and enticing eateries that beckon to residents and visitors alike. Join crowds flocking to beaches in summer, or find peaceful harmony in nature amid ancient salt marshes where shorebirds and aquatic creatures abound.
BEACONS OF LIGHT
Lighthouses have guarded the New Jersey coast for centuries, lining the shoreline to warn vessels traveling the Atlantic Ocean. Explore the state’s iconic lighthouses in Atlantic City, Barnegat Light, Highlands, Sea Girt, North Wildwood, Heislerville and more.

BOARDWALK FUN
Hop into a vintage-style rolling chair to explore myriad modern pleasures along America’s oldest and longest boardwalk in Atlantic City. A carnival atmosphere prevails at many Jersey Shore boardwalks including Ocean City, The Wildwoods and Seaside Heights packed with arcades, rides, water parks, classic candy shops and escape-room thrills. Slow the pace with miniature golf, a movie or a captivating visit to Jenkinson’s Aquarium in Point Pleasant Beach. Countless souvenir and sweets shops provide irresistible temptation.

ANCHORS AWAY
It’s “all aboard” for boating adventures geared to personal preferences and pursuits. While expertly staffed deep-sea fishing charters help land a big one, lifting a fork or glass is the only exertion required on a sunset dinner or booze cruise. Soar sky-high on a parasailing escapade or reach top speeds waterskiing behind a boat rental. Be entranced by nature on dolphin- and whale-watching tours or pontoon boat eco-tours of tranquil wetlands.

SAND TO SEA
Surfers catch waves at Manasquan Inlet and 16th Ave. at Belmar Beach, while boogie boarders head to the Bay Head beaches—or learn skimboarding at a Sea Bright skim camp. Find beach volleyball nets in Long Branch and more in Sea Isle City. Cast a line from the state’s longest ocean fishing pier in Ventnor City. Hunt seashells and shoreline treasures on Long Beach Island and Brigantine Beach.

Paw-Friendly Outings
There are varying rules and regulations for dogs on New Jersey beaches and boardwalks (often seasonal or time-of-day). Be sure to do your research beforehand to avoid disappointing your doggo.
Embrace the call of the wild in 58 state and national parks, plus a host of forests, lakes and nature preserves. Although modest in size, New Jersey packs a punch when it comes to fresh-air exploits. From the serene shores of the Delaware River to the rugged peaks of the Kittatinny Mountains, an array of adventurous activities await.

PADDLING PURSUITS
While groups of kayakers can take a tour to the Statue of Liberty at Liberty State Park, canoeists relish the calm current of D&R Canal at Blackwell Mills. Paddleboarders and kayakers can also relax in the tranquil beauty of island-studded Wawayanda Lake or the peaceful waters of Greenwood Lake.

WILDLIFE VIEWING & BIRDING
Nature enthusiasts will love Great Swamp National Wildlife Refuge in Basking Ridge, a compact oasis of boardwalks and trails great for viewing native wildlife in the meadows and wetlands. The vast Glades Wildlife Refuge encompasses diverse habitats, while NJ Audubon’s Nature Center of Cape May abounds with bird-watching activities for all ages.

HIKING & BIKING
The enormous New Jersey Pinelands National Reserve includes the Pine Barrens and five state forests with recreational facilities. Elevated trails supply breathtaking vistas for hikers at Norvin Green State Forest, while bikers enjoy the historic and scenic Old Mine Road in Worthington State Forest. Take in sweeping views of the Delaware Water Gap from the 1,527-ft summit of Mount Tammany.
GONE FISHING
Every fishing hot spot boasts a specialty. For striped bass, try Great Egg Harbor River or Delaware Water Gap, largemouth bass at Lake Hopatcong and trout at Merrill Creek Reservoir or Round Valley Reservoir. Surf cast for fluke or bluefish at Island Beach State Park or Sandy Hook.

CHASING WATERFALLS
Buttermilk Falls is the tallest of New Jersey’s 20 waterfalls, while Silver Spray Falls is a near-hidden trail treasure. View the serene Tinton Falls from a wooden platform. The majestic Paterson Great Falls also offers easy viewing, while Ramapo Falls and Greenbrook Falls are hike-worthy.

MOUNTAIN SPORTS
Come winter, head to the ski lifts at Mountain Creek Resort in Vernon and Campgaw Mountain in Mahwah, where skiing, snowboarding and snow tubing take center stage. Hit snow-covered slopes year-round—in indoors—at Big Snow American Dream in East Rutherford. New Sno-Go bikes are fun and easy.

CLIMBING & ZIP LINING
Grab hands-on excitement at aerial obstacle courses at the Essex County TreeTop Adventure Course or Great Gorge’s TreEscape Aerial Adventure Park. While multiple zip lines swoop over The Mainland Adventure Park in Manahawkin, the Soaring Eagle takes a 700-foot flight across West Berlin’s Diggerland USA.
Epicurean Experiences

Calling all appetites! Embark on a flavorful journey stretching from the Atlantic shore to the Garden State’s fertile farmlands. It’s not just about pork roll here—New Jersey’s culinary scene is as diverse as its landscape.

Pizzeria Mainstays
New Jersey received well-deserved recognition from Food & Wine magazine when it was named the “best pizza state in America.” Find must-try pizzerias at VisitNJ.org/article/new-jerseys-pizza.

WINERIES & VINEYARDS
With 50-plus wineries in four designated American Viticultural Areas, oenophiles can follow regional wine trails to compare vintners’ traditions and talents. Along with tastings, amenities may include tours, dining and entertaining events. Find plentiful destinations to try Jersey-grown grapes in Pennington, New Egypt, Rio Grande, Cape May, Franklinville, Williamstown, Pilesgrove, Hammonton and Pittstown.

FARMERS MARKETS
Hyper-local farmers markets, operating weekly in season, present ultra-fresh veggies and fruits, plus specialties like baked goods, breads and jams. Check out Princeton Farmers Market (Thursdays), Sparta Farmers Market (Saturdays) and Morristown Farmers Market (Sundays). Tuesday’s Burlington City Farmers Market features food trucks, and the year-round multi-day Columbus Farmers Market includes an Amish market and flea market.

BLUE RIBBON BLUEBERRIES
Drive through the pastoral Pinelands to Hammonton—the self proclaimed “Blueberry Capital of the World”—to grab a pint (or 10) of farm-fresh blueberries in summer.

CRAFT BREWERIES
A burgeoning microbrew scene delivers classic and innovative tastes poured in snob-free environments. Find multiple craft brew pubs in Jersey City, Hackensack, Newton, Clifton, Asbury Park, North Bergen and Chatham. Discover escorted multi-stop tours across the state; “Pints and Pedals” cycling tours map out short-to-long bike loops in Cape May County.

FOODIE TOURS
Sample, sip and savor local culture and ethnic cuisines—including Italian, of course—on Taste of Asbury Food Tours and Jersey City: Taste of Downtown Food Tour. On the Town Food Tours, stroll through the tasteful streets of Bordentown City, Collingswood, Haddonfield and Mount Holly, or explore traditional tastes in Atlantic City’s Ducktown neighborhood.

90 MILES OF WHITE-SAND BEACHES
offer more than enough space to relax and plenty to explore. Visit a lighthouse, taste the bounty of the region at a roadside Jersey Fresh produce stand and have some family fun at any of the boardwalk attractions.

CATCH A CONCERT
Explore the vibrant and artistic town of Asbury Park. Known for its lively boardwalk, music scene, art galleries and colorful murals, don’t miss this cultural hub by the sea. A must-stop is the Asbury Park Boardwalk, home to restaurants, beach bars, nightclubs, theaters and the iconic Convention Hall for big-name concerts.

HIT THE BEACH
For a classic Jersey Shore experience, head to Point Pleasant Beach. This family friendly destination offers a wide sandy beach, a bustling boardwalk with games, rides and an aquarium. Be sure to try the delicious boardwalk fare, including funnel cake and saltwater taffy.

BEAT THE CROWDS
For a more natural and less crowded coastal experience, head to Island Beach State Park in Seaside Park. This pristine barrier island offers miles of undeveloped shoreline, dunes and salt marshes. It’s a haven for birdwatchers, kayakers, hikers and beachcombers.

TAKE AN ECO-TOUR
Explore maritime history at Tuckerton Seaport & Baymen’s Museum in the working maritime village along Tuckerton Creek. This cultural attraction offers a leisurely, scenic eco-tour on its ferry and showcases the heritage of Jersey Shore’s baymen, including exhibits on boat building and the coastal environment.

ATLANTIC CITY MAY BE KNOWN for its numerous casino resorts, but its greater regional area offers so much more. Hike through state forests, pick homegrown produce and visit historic villages once home to booming industries.

GREATER ATLANTIC CITY

Greater Atlantic City

CHEERS A GLASS
Wine enthusiasts can explore Renault Winery, one of the oldest continuously operating wineries in the United States. Take a vineyard tour, sample wines and dine at the on-site restaurant. It’s a relaxing way to experience the region’s wine culture in Egg Harbor City.

SLOW DOWN
Smithville is a charming village known for its quaint shops, historic buildings, weekend festivals and the Smithville Inn, a popular dining spot. Stroll along the cobblestone paths, enjoy paddleboat rides on Lake Meone and take in the relaxed atmosphere.

STEP BACK IN TIME
Venture to Batsto Village, a historic site located within Wharton State Forest in Hammonton. This former iron-works and glassmaking village provides a glimpse into South Jersey’s industrial past. Tour a mansion and general store or hike nearby trails.

CLIMB AN ELEPHANT
Visit Lucy the Elephant, a novelty attraction in Margate. This six-story, wooden elephant is both a historical and architectural landmark. Take a guided tour inside Lucy to learn her history and enjoy panoramic views from the howdah on her back.
A GETAWAY
THAT’S NOT FAR AWAY.
